PUBLISHING FOR OUTER SPACE

- Can become an exponential-growth industry like the manufacture and launching of spacecraft did.
- Missions for commercial exploration, mining, and colonization of moons and planets are on launch schedules and software is being developed now.

THE SETTLERS WILL HAVE TO BUILD

- A society, an economy, an electronic library
 - Homes and machines (using 3-D printers)
 - Farms to grow food for themselves and their families
- These astronauts, explorers, miners, colonists and tourists will want to read, reference, listen to, or view interesting useful eBooks during their long journeys and missions.
